Written by: Natasha Kirchmann , Director at Ecoled Resources (Pty) Ltd

Eve has been a service provider to Ecoled Resources for the past two and a half years. She has been extremely helpful in designing and creating the web site and has not only educated the core team on how to use social media but has been immensely supportive and patient with those of us who are sadly technologically challenged.

Eve has made herself available every time we have needed her help and due to her calm and professional manner I would not go to anyone to assist us in our future social media developments.

It has been a pleasure working with Eve and am immensely grateful to her for her assistance over the years.

Best Regards,
